Start with your product list

Specify what kinds of notifications you want to receive, how and how often
Choose all or select specific notification types.

For example, choose

- Security bulletins and security vulnerability alerts
- Product information and publications, Technotes
- APARs (Authorized Program Analysis Reports)
- Downloads and drivers
- Fixes, troubleshooting
- Flashes, news, webcasts

The notifications you want. For the things you need.

Set your software download and eNotification preferences

If you buy software, download fixes or new versions of software you already 'own', you will need access to Passport Advantage Online (PAO).

Request PAO access

- Once approved, sign in to PAO to set your download and media access privileges.
- Make sure you say 'YES' to subscribe to email notifications –eNotifications.
- When new versions or releases of your licensed software become available for download, you'll get an email. It's that easy.
