Account management in Passport Advantage Online is where the Site's Primary and Secondary Contacts grant access privileges, assign user roles and manage contact information. Decisions made in this section ensure security and usability of your PAO site by controlling who can access the Site and what tasks they can perform.	 A screenshot of the IBM Account management web interface. The page title is 'Account management' and it includes sections for 'Your account', 'Your agreement', and 'Your agreement details'. The 'Your account' section lists fields like Name, Contact type, Site number, Site name, and Address. The 'Your agreement' section lists Agreement number, Agreement start date, Agreement end date, and Agreement type.
If you are the Primary Contact or a Secondary Contact with update privileges, 'Account management' should be your very first stop every time to sign in.	 A navigation map with a dark background and light-colored contour lines. A blue dot labeled 'Account management' is highlighted with a white circle. A line connects it to another point labeled 'Primary contact'. Below the line, text says 'Up to four secondary contacts'.
