Event objectives:

You are facing challenges in optimizing your product line, creating new products that meet demanding customer needs and still achieving profit.

Join us and other customers within your industry to discuss PLM and the challenges it can help you solve.

With our knowledge of your industry and products that can respond directly to your needs, let us help you through the lifecycle of your product line to:

- Reduce the cycle time for bidding and build-to-order
- Meet the rapid change in customers needs
- Respond to increasing product complexity and demands of international standards
- Reduce increasing delays and cost due to lack of co-ordination between different teams, locations, Business Units and suppliers
- Provide After Market Services to increase profit and reduce warranty costs
